Consumers have the right to receive a written statement, together with a verbal explanation, of their rights and responsibilities in a way that is understandable to them as soon as possible after entering the MHS.  Consumers are continually educated about their rights and responsibilities.  Consumers have the right to receive the least restrictive treatment appropriate, considering the consumer's preference, the demands on carers, and the availability of support and safety of those involved.  A mental health professional responsible for coordinating clinical care is identified and made known to consumers.  Consumers are partners in the management of all aspects of their treatment, care and recovery planning.  Informed consent is actively sought from consumers prior to any service or intervention provided or any changes in care delivery are planned, where it is established that the consumer has capacity to give informed consent.  Consumers are provided with current and accurate information on the care being delivered.  Consumers have the right to choose from the available range of treatment and support programs appropriate to their needs.  The right of consumers to involve or not to involve carers and others is recognised and respected by the MHS.  Consumers have an individual exit plan with information on how to reenter the service if needed.  Consumers are actively involved in follow-up arrangements to maintain continuity of care.  The right of consumers to have access to their own health records is recognised in accordance with relevant Commonwealth and state / territory legislation / guidelines.  Information about consumers can be accessed by authorised persons |

Standard 7. Carers

The MHS recognises, respects, values and supports the importance of carers to the wellbeing, treatment, and recovery of people with a mental illness.

| 7.1  | The MHS has clear policies and service delivery protocols to enable staff to effectively identify carers as soon as possible in all episodes of care, and this is recorded and prominently displayed within the consumer's health record.                                                         | Family & Carers     Personal Records                                                                        |
